The rise was unexpected, and may be attributed to the very small supplies received in the previous year 1984-85, and the higher prices ruling for Indian ten last year. The trade in China tea was not large, and the Collector is of opinion that it is kept alive probably by the low price at which phong on the 22nd instant and was to leave for to that of the article locally produced."

Respecting a committee having been formed we wish it success. The Germans are said not which a Chinaman was arrested on board the approaches to that port are being improved, so being no Church service of their own which they that the largest vessels will be able to get up, can attend. It is not enough merely to understand the language in which the service is conducted. Were that so the English services might suffice for the Germans, who all understand English perfectly. But when the fastidiousness of English-speaking people respecting particular sub-divisions of the forms of Protestant worship is considered, it is easy to understand how little real sympathy Germans can feel in any of the forms presented to them at present in China.

The directors declared an interim dividend of four per cent. (Taols 4 per share), payable on the 31st day of July last, and have now declared a further dividend of six per cent. (Taels 6 per share), payable 5th February next, which will absorb Taels 12,975 of the balance of profit and loss account brought forward. To meet the increased demand for storage, more particularly for kerosine oil, it was necessary to provide more accommodation, and it was decided to construct one large godown, to fill in with brick walls a large open shod with a tiled roof; and the requiremonts of the business necessitated the erection of substantial shears. The additions and improvements have been made, enabling the company to offer every facility to the increasing demands of its customers, and have proved important and valuable to the property. The godowns, sheds, wharf, and landing stages are in very good condition, and no repairs of which it died, the locality in which any importance are anticipated in the near future. Ever since that time the girl has been going smoothly on with her school duties until yesterday, when her famous aunt revealed her plans for the young girl's future. It promised to be as uneventful as ordinary lives. Patti's brother Carlo was for years the leader of an orchestra in the old Varieties theatre. He married a creele lady, Mile. Deschamp, Mile. Carolina shows her warm Italian blood in a pair of big dusky eyes and a lovely searlet mouth, with the cliveskin and dark hair of her family. She has a winning, piquant face that attracts one's attention at once. She reached her sixteenth birthday just before her relatives arrived in the city the other day, and received some costly presents from both Nicolini and Patti. In February the prima donna be in Cincinnati, where the young will join them en route for Europe, "Craig y Nos" will be Carolina's future home. While her decided musical talent is to be highly cultivated, she is never to think of the operatio stage as a profession.

which the praya wall is to be built forthwith. Two 6-inch breech-loading long range guns, weighing over 12,000 lbs, each: manufactured by Sir Wm. G. Armstrong, are being mounted in a newly-constructed redoubt on the summit of a that direction. It is then supposed that the hillock overlooking the Seamen's Hospital, at the Pagoda Anchorage. The earthwork, which was done entirely under Chinese supervision, reflects great credit on its constructors.

A disastrous fire cooncred in the City on the 17th Jaunary and before a couple of hours had elapsed no less than sixty to seventy houses fell a prey to the devouring element. No attempt. worthy of the name was made to arrest the course of the conflagration, and after making quel a sad havoo the fire burnt itself out as always happens in Chinese cities. It is said that the origin of the fire must be attributed to the indiscriminate firing of crackers indulged in by the natives, as it is their wont, at this period of the voar.

The warlike native soldiers stationed at the forts in course of construction in the vicinity of Pagoda Anchorage seem to be imbued with a stone-throwing disposition. For the last few days several Europeans while attempting to take an afternoon stroll on the hillside had to return to their homes the worst for their attempt. We learn that a complaint has since been lodged at the British Consulate against the anything but agreeable practice of the Chinese soldiers converting peaceful Europeans, who happened to be sauntering about, into moveable targets, at which they aim every sort of handy missiles, in the absence of powder and shot. It is refreshing to hear, however, that the British Vicer-Consul has addressed a despatch to the Chinese Authorities on the subject.—Echo.

CHEFOO.

19th January.

Our new Tao-tai, Sheng, is a decided improvement on his predecessors, in so far as interest and activity in the cause of progress and civilization are concerned. One of his first acts after taking over the seals of office was the opening of a free hospital and dispensary for the poor; and at the same time he very wisely decided to break through the old established custom of sending expensive presents, and to use the money—amounting to about $600 per annum-for philanthropic purposes. Now he is directing his attention to the development of the trade of this port and has closed a contract with a well-known Shanghai firm for the building of a small steamer, to run between Chefco and Tai-chaofoo on the north of the Promontory, and Kiaochao on the south. The new boat will have ample accommodation for Chinese passengers, and two cabins for foreign passengers, but these will seldom be required, unless the vessel runs also to Teng-chao-foo, which is not improbable. This is least, facilitated, by having this vessel as a The recent discovery of a stratum of meteoric iron ore on the Chefoo bluff may possibly be an important epoch in the history of this port, and our health-giving air may at some future date be poisoned by the exhalations of blast furnances. After spending considerable time upon forcibly removing the key plate, and endeavouring to "pick" the look with the best-neil, (and a pair of type pinchers found on the premises,) it would seem that the job had been given up in despair, probably consequence of the nail breaking off short in the key-hole, thus obstructing all further efforts in thief devoted his attention to one of the desk emphoards, which was locked but easily forced open, and from which was extracted some twelve dollars in silver uen and small change, beyond which nothing was mi-sed, although the cupboard had been ransacked and all the paper overhauled. A quantity of postage stamps, "marked" Mexican dollar, and other small articles of more or less value, were left untouched, but whether through four that they might lead to detection, or in consequence of daylight coming on, is of course not known. Entrance was effected through a small window overlooking the Takasima coalsheds, one of the panes which was first broken to admit of the window being opened. The matter was at once taken in hand by the police authorities, but no trace whatever of the thief has been discovered .- ON BOMBAY .--Rising Sun.
